

PROFITEERING IS CAUSE OF TROUBLES

UNION EMPLOYES SAY THIS IS CAUSE OF RAILROAD'S PLIGHT

Claim That Decrease in Cost of Materials Has Brought a Large Measure of Relief to Roads
Economist W. Jett Lauck Gives Figures on Enormous Profits of Steel Companies

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 22.—Wartime and post-war profiteering was held responsible for a large part of the financial difficulties of American railroads in an exhibit filed by the railway union before the railroad labor board today. Decreases in the cost of materials have brought a large measure of relief to the roads, the exhibit said, and this should be taken into consideration before the employees' payroll is sliced.

The two industries in which profiteering was most rampant were those from which the railroads purchased the bulk of their materials—the iron and steel industry and the coal mines, according to W. Jett Lauck, economist for the unions who compiled the exhibit. "A conservative estimate," he said, "of what this profiteering cost the railroads from 1916 to 1919 is $75,000,000 a year in coal bills and $200,000,000 for steel and iron products, including equipment and repairs from locomotive and car companies."

"The railroads expended approximately $700,000,000 for coal and $1,210,300,000 for other materials and supplies in 1920, a total expenditure of about $2,000,000,000," the exhibit continued. "Since then there has been a decline in the cost of almost everything purchased by the railroads. According to figures published by the bureau of labor statistics, there was, up to February, 1921, a decline of 28 1/2 per cent in average wholesale prices of all commodities, although the decrease in the cost of living in the same period was less than 10 per cent. If, as the railroads claim, this recession is to continue, it will be only a comparatively short time before an average decline of 50 per cent. will be recorded."

"It is plain what this would mean to the railroads. The same amount of materials as purchased in 1920 will cost $1,000,000,000 less. In other words, making no allowance for increased traffic and the consequent higher revenue at increased rates now in effect, railroad operating expenses would be reduced by this amount, which would be a direct addition to operating income."

Jump in Coal Prices
The average price of coal jumped from $1.48 a ton in 1915 to $3.94 a ton in 1920, according to the exhibit, which estimates that approximately $319,800,000 more was spent by the railroads for coal last year than in 1915 "when prices were slightly above the pre-war level." Mr. Lauck declared the coal companies' explanation of higher labor costs was branded as false by the federal trade commission.

Earnings of 17 companies set forth in the exhibit showed that from an average percentage earning of 7.9 in 1912, the percentage rose to 27.2 in 1917, declining to 17.2 in 1918.

Illustrating profiteering in the iron and steel industry, Mr. Lauck continued:

"The financial manuals, such as Moody's and Poor's published the annual reports of 19 steel companies. Eighteen were in existence prior to the war.

Steel Profits Quadruple

"During the pre-war years 1912-1914 these 18 steel companies had an average net income of $74,650,000. For the war years 1915-1918 the income of these same corporations averaged approximately $337,000,000, or almost exactly four and one-half times the pre-war average. In other words, in the three years of war, these companies made a total of more than a billion dollars, of which some $750,000,000 represented excess profits over pre-war conditions. These excess war time profits of at least $750,000,000 represent a burden of about $30 upon every American family."

"The average profits of the United States Steel Corporation for the years 1916-1918 were $211,094,557. This was more than four times its pre-war average of $53,000,000."

"In relation to capital stocks, the profits earned by the Bethlehem Steel Corporation were even higher than those of the United States Steel Corporation. In contrast with pre-war profits of approximately $4,250,000, the average annual profits during the war years 1916-1918 were approximately $20,000,000. Thus, the war time earnings were over six times as large as those of the earlier years."

"Crucible Steel took advantage of the war to quadruple its profits. From an average of approximately $1,115,000, they rose to over $4,600,000 from 6.3 per cent. to 28.2 per cent. For three years this corporation earned annually more

U.S. WILL NOT OPEN DOORS TO FOREIGN POLITICAL REFUGEES

Not to Permit William and Others to Come to America

WILL NOT PERMIT
O'CALLAGHAN TO STAY

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 22.—After rejecting an amendment seeking to open the doors of the United States to foreign political refugees, the house today passed the immigration restriction bill substantially in the same form it went through last session, 2 only to be given a pocket veto. The bill now goes to the senate where Republican leaders said it would be passed without delay.

The measure is designed to be operative over a period of 14 months and would limit the entry of aliens to 3 per cent. of the number of nationals of any country in the United States at the time of the 1910 census.

Three amendments slightly modifying its provisions were adopted although it was said tonight they might be stricken out by the senate. One would permit admission in excess of the three per cent. limit of all aliens clearly proving they had been subjected to religious persecutions in their native land and were seeking refuge here solely to avoid such hardships.

The second would admit children of American citizens under 18 years of age, independent of the percentage of limitation, and the third would give preference to the families and relatives of American citizens and former service men, honorably discharged from the army or navy, regardless of whether they had been naturalized in determining the question of admissibility under the restricted law.

Bar Political Refugees
The principal fight was over an amendment offered by Representative Sabath, Illinois, ranking Democrat, on the immigration committee, to open the gates to political refugees. This was lost after a long debate, closed by Representative Mondell, Republican leader, who said that under it, even the former German emperor would come here.

This question was bitterly discussed. Representative Cickran, Democrat, New York, insisting that the former emperor would be met by strong hands ready to throw him in prison.

Mr. Mondell was vigorous in denouncing the plan to open the gates for political refugees. "Under the amendment offered," he said, "not only could William, the damned, come here, but Charles, the late emperor of Austria, and all the kings and princes spurned by the people of Europe could come. Not only that, but every Russian opposed to the regime of Lenin and Trotsky would gain admission. They, Lenin and Trotsky, and all the foul hordes that have followed them, could come in, and we could not close the doors against them, even though they were avowed anarchists. That is what this amendment would do."

Immediately after the house had voted the amendment down, Mr. Sabath presented another designed to make lawful the entry of Donald J. O'Callaghan, mayor of Cork, Ireland, and permit him to remain as a political refugee.

A dozen members in all parts of the chamber jumped to their feet with cries of a "point of order." One was sustained.

HOME BREW EXPLODES
INJURES ATTORNEY

Lawyer Defending Home Brew
Manufacturer Has Artery in Wrist Cut—Causes Court to Recess.

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., April 22.—While defending Dick Coppersmith in court today on a charge of manufacturing home brew, B. F. Endres picked up a bottle of the alleged brew as he questioned an expert.

"Do you think you know home brew when you see it?"

"I think I do," responded the witness.

"Now," the attorney continued, "would you call this—"

There was a loud report as the bottle exploded.

Flying glass cut the main artery in Endres' right wrist. Another piece broke one of the lenses in the attorney's glasses.

Judge Wendell declared a recess and Endres was given first aid treatment.

The defense went into the trial with the contention that the beverage did not contain sufficient "kick" to come within the bone-dry statute.

Scientists Disprove Einstein's Theory

(By The Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, April 22.—Results of experiments presented before today's session of the American Philosophical Society were asserted by scientists present to disprove the Einstein theory and upset Newton's law of gravitation if true, Dr. Charles F. Brush, of Cleveland, presented experiments, results of which tend to show that gravitation acted differently with different substances.

"If these experiments be true it upsets all we have known about gravitation for 200 years," said Dr. A. G. Webster of Clark University, Worcester, Mass.

"Dr. Einstein's theory has been based on the conclusions of Baron Eotvos' experiments with gravitation that it acts proportionately with all substances to a certain degree," said Dr. Brush. "But these experiments give radically different results from Baron Eotvos' experiments."

Efforts to create a high explosive out of bitumol molasses were under way when the war stopped, it was revealed by Charles E. Monroe, professor of chemistry at George Washington University.

VOICE OPPOSITION TO CONFIRMATION OF C. R. EDWARDS

Democrats Opposed to His Advancement to Major General

INVESTIGATION IS SUGGESTED

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 22.—Strong opposition on the part of Democrats was voiced at a meeting of the senate military committee to day to confirmation of the nomination of Brigadier General Clarence R. Edwards, first commander overseas of the 26th division, to be a major general. The subject was discussed at a conference with Secretary Weeks, who urged confirmation in the official qualifications of the officers recently nominated by President Harding to be brigadier and major generals.

The opposition to promotion of General Edwards was said to have been based upon his military record, also Mr. Weeks said war department files contained no unfavorable evidence in connection with his release from command of the division some time before the armistice.

It was said, was suggested, and the secretary was requested to supplement information given the committee today at a meeting tomorrow. Meanwhile action on all the nominations was deferred.

Name Headed List.
General Edwards' name headed the list of major generals nominated by President Harding, although the last administration had refused to recommend him for promotion.

The name of Omar Bundy, commander overseas of the Second division, also carried in the list of major general submitted for confirmation at the last session of congress, was not included in the Harding list, and failure of the war department to name him at this time was criticized today by Senator New, Republican, Indiana. He is understood to have made an effort to have the name restored to the list.

Secretary Weeks informed the committee, it was reported, that he did not plan to name a chief of staff or recommend the promotions to the rank of brigadier until the senate acts on the list of twelve major and fourteen brigadier generals now pending.

RECOMMENDS CURB BE PUT ON GIRLS

Chicago, April 22.—Social relaxations of American college girls should be fewer and the present tendency to let a young girl "try everything and know everything" is dangerous, according to resolutions adopted today by 75 women at a meeting of the Illinois Association of Deans and Advisors of girls in colleges, universities, Normal schools and high schools.

The resolutions also urged better chaperoning and more simple dress for girls.

TURNED OVER TO OFFICIALS

Laredo, Texas, April 22.—Linn A. E. Eagle, an American, who recently was deported from Mexico for radicalism, arrived here late tonight and was turned over by immigration officials to military authorities at Fort McIntosh here.

SEEKING TO BUILD UP ORGANIZATION

CHICAGO, April 22.—While federal authorities were searching for William D. "Big Bill" Haywood, reported to have fled to Russia to escape serving a 20 year prison sentence, new information regarding the purpose of his alleged journey reached investigators.

One report said Haywood had gone to Russia to raise money for the rehabilitation of the I. W. W. organization. Membership, it was said, has fallen from more than 400,000 to less than 7,000 since the trial of 93 members in 1918 for obstruction of the draft laws.

Thomas J. Howe, an investigator for the department of justice, who helped to obtain convictions of scores of I. W. W. leaders, said Haywood and Leon Trotsky, Bolshevik minister of war, were firm friends.

TWO MEMBERS OF DIPLOMATIC CORPS BEING CONSIDERED

David Hill, New York
and H. L. Wilson, Indiana, Are Men

HILL SERVED UNDER TAFT AND ROOSEVELT

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 22.—Recall to the diplomatic corps of Dr. David Hill of New York and H. L. Wilson of Indiana, both of whom served under the last Republican administration, is understood to be under serious consideration by President Harding.

Dr. Hill, American envoy of Germany under President Roosevelt and Taft, is said to be foremost in the president's mind for the ambassadorship to Japan, while Mr. Wilson, a former ambassador to Mexico, may go either to Rome or Constantinople.

Altho the selection has not reached a point warranting a definite announcement, Mr. Harding is understood to be approaching a decision regarding these and several other important appointments to the diplomatic service.

Both Dr. Hill and Mr. Wilson have had long diplomatic experience, a consideration which weighed strongly in their favor when the president, shortly after his inauguration, asked the state department to prepare a summary of the records of all aspirants for diplomatic posts.

Noted as Writer
Dr. Hill, a writer of political subjects, was assistant secretary of state from 1898 to 1903, and subsequently served as minister to Switzerland and to The Netherlands before accepting the ambassadorship to Germany. He was at Berlin from 1908 to 1911.

Mr. Wilson's diplomatic service began in 1907, when he was named minister to Chile, and was interrupted in 1913, when he resigned as ambassador to Mexico after a break with President Wilson over the Mexican policy of the Democratic administration. Meantime he had been minister to Greece and Belgium.

It is understood administration officials regard Mr. Wilson as having special qualifications for both places for which he is under consideration, but are disagreed as to which he could fill to better advantage.

At present the United States has no ambassador to Turkey, diplomatic relations having lapsed during the war because of German occupation of Turkish territory. Turkey and the United States were not technically at war, and it is said there is no legal barrier to a resumption of full diplomatic relations.

GERMANY WILL AID IN RECONSTRUCTION WORK

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, April 22.—Germany has sent a note to the British government reiterating her complete willingness to undertake the reconstruction of devastated France.

The note was delivered by the German embassy to the British foreign office this evening. It follows:

"Germany is absolutely persuaded that it is unavoidably necessary for the purpose of restoring economic peace throughout the world that the territories devastated thru the war should be reconstructed and restored. Until this is done there will be danger that feelings of hate will continue to exist among the nations concerned."

"Germany, therefore, declares herself once more to be entirely willing to co-operate in this reconstruction with all the means and strength at her disposal, and to take into account in regard thereto, in every individual case, each wish of the power concerned as far as possible."

JURY RETURNS SUICIDE VERDICT

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 22.—Joseph Zimmerman, formerly city treasurer of Springfield, Ill., who was found shot thru the head in a downtown hotel last night, came to his death as the result of a bullet wound, inflicted with suicidal intent, according to the verdict of a coroner's jury.

Frank Reich, secretary of the Reich Brewing Co., brother-in-law of Zimmerman, appeared, but was unable to furnish any evidence that might indicate a motive for the tragedy. He said that Zimmerman was not in financial straits and that there were no domestic difficulties.

The body was sent to Springfield tonight.

UNITED STATES WILL STAND WITH ALLIES AS TO REPARATIONS

Any Proposals That Germany May Make
Must be of a Character That the Allies are Willing to Consider—Situation Has Been Discussed Among Officials Informally

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 22.—Any reparations proposals Germany may submit to the United States for transmission to the allies must be of a character those governments will be willing to consider, and therefore before being formally presented to the powers as a whole, their general nature will probably be made clear to the governments separately.

Pending a reparations offer, which it was expected might be received tomorrow as a result of the German cabinet council meeting tonight, official comment was withheld. It was known that diplomatic representatives here of the allied governments had exchanged opinions today on Secretary Hughes' reply to Germany's appeal for mediation of the reparations dispute, and it was understood that the situation had been discussed informally by officials of the United States and those of the interested European nations.

The declaration of Dr. Simons, the German foreign minister, in the Reichstag that in drawing up a basis of its propositions the German government "must go to the extreme limits of what the German people can furnish in the way of reparations," was interpreted here as an acceptance of the American position recently stated that the United States stands with the Allies in holding Germany responsible for the war and therefore morally bound to make restitution to the full extent of her ability to pay.

Will Stand by Allies
The American government it is understood does not propose to disassociate herself from the Allies in the matter of certain economic adjustments growing out of the war and whatever reparations proposals from Germany she may place before the Allied governments will first be carefully considered in the light of their common interests.

Moreover, it was said, the United States will not be sponsor for any German plan and will not assume any obligation which might prove embarrassing in bringing reparations proposals to the Allies' attention.

Copies of Secretary Hughes' reply to the German memorandum requesting American mediation were sent today to American diplomats for their information and were furnished diplomatic representatives here of foreign powers.

The promptness of the American reply, declining to act as mediator, but offering to consider bringing to the attention of the Allies any reparations proposals Germany might make, was commented upon favorably here.

Reports tonight indicated no prospect of lessening of the Allied demands. Premier Briand of France, and Lloyd George will discuss reparations Sunday, and the general reparations council is to be held early next week. Meanwhile French forces are understood to be preparing to extend their occupation of German territory May 1, if the German position is unsatisfactory.

PHOSGENE GAS CAUSES ONE DEATH

Boundbrook, N. J., April 22.—One man was killed and four persons were overcome with phosgene gas which early today began escaping thru a leak in the tank of a large chemical company when and drove residents to places of safety.

Bill Fillman, an employee, died from congestion of the lungs after he had inhaled a quantity of the gas. Harold Saunders, former chief chemist, who braved the fumes wearing only a light gas mask and stopped the leak and three others were overcome. All were expected to recover.

Authorities said there was enough gas in the tank to kill the entire population.

CABINET COUNCIL TO MAKE KNOWN POLICY

Simons Says Government Must Go to Extreme Limit of What German People Can Pay in Reparations.

Berlin, April 22.—A cabinet council will meet this evening and tomorrow the German government will make known its policy on the question of reparations.

Dr. Simons, the foreign minister, made this announcement in the Reichstag today in speaking of the willingness of the American government to transmit German reparations proposal to the allied governments in a manner acceptable to them.

The foreign minister said: "The German government will have to take a decision concerning the establishment of a basis for its propositions. The government is convinced that in drawing up this project it must go to the extreme limits of what the German people can furnish in the way of reparations."

—operate their own timber lands in Northern Michigan.
—make every part of the BRUNSWICK PHONOGRAPH in its entirety.
—are the only phonograph manufacturers in the United States, and we think, the only one in the world, that actually does this.
—have at the present time seven factories devote to the manufacture of phonographs and parts, and two factories to the pressing of records.
—cut their own veneer logs and slice their own veneer.
—manufacture their own panels and are just completing a plant

Ponder over these facts and you will readily discover the reason of our enthusiasm for BRUNSWICK

RUTH AND KELLY TIED ON HOME RUNS

NEW YORK, April 22.—The home run batting race between Babe Ruth of the New York Yankees and George Kelly of the New York Nationals, remained at a dead heat today when each player pounded out his fourth circuit clout of the season.

Ruth is far ahead of last year's schedule as he did not make his fourth home run in 1920 until May 11.

SANGAMO ELECTRIC'S OPEN SEASON TODAY

SPRINGFIELD, April 21.—Venturing for the first time into downstate Illinois the House of David baseball team, whose players attract as much attention by their long hair and beards, as by their proficiency with the ball, will open this season in Springfield, May 28, with a game with the Sangamo Electrics.

These ancient appearing players whose looks belie their baseball skill, have played much in eastern United States, but according to reports here, have never left their home at Boston Harbor, Mich., before to come further into Illinois than Chicago.

Tomorrow the Sangamos will open a two game series at home with last year's 1. I. I. champions from Bloomington. They will play one game Saturday and another Sunday.

CITIZENSHIP SCHOOL CLOSED SESSION

Program of Final Day Attracted Many—Ex-Congressman Jeanette Rankin Heard in Two Addresses.

The Citizenship school which has been in progress during the past four days under the auspices of the Jacksonville Woman's club came to a close Friday. The main feature of the final day's program was the appearance of Miss Jeanette Rankin, former Montana congresswoman, who spoke at both the afternoon and evening sessions.

At the morning session Miss Anne Hinrichsen, executive secretary of welfare commission, of Springfield, was the principal speaker. Brief addresses were also made by Miss Fowler and Miss Clara Arthur.

Judge Jones Makes Address
The opening address of the afternoon was by Judge Norman L. Jones of Carrollton, who discussed "Judiciary of the Government."

The main point emphasized was the importance of keeping the judiciary separate from the other departments of government. Judge Jones said that the supreme court of the United States, recognized as the greatest judicial body in the world, has yet had its bitter experiences and its scandals. These scandals, he said, could all be traced directly to politics. The histories of many of the early appointees to the supreme bench were recalled and many facts not generally known related.

One of the interesting stories told was that of John Scholfield of Illinois, the first man to decline appointment as justice of the U. S. supreme court. When asked for the reason for his extraordinary action Mr. Scholfield pointed to an old lady in the back yard of his home, hanging out clothes, and said: "That is Mrs. Scholfield. We were married young, raised and educated a large family and now our work in life is done. We live here contented and happy. If I were chief justice of the supreme court there would devolve upon me certain social duties to which Mrs. Scholfield is unaccustomed, and I would not embarrass or humiliate that woman for the highest office in the gift of the nation." This incident was referred to as illustrating the bigness of the man.

In closing Judge Jones said: "Our government has stood the test of time. It has been the beacon light to liberty loving peoples the world over. It is our duty to save and protect against destruction the good name which America has gained."

The Minimum Wage.
It was a source of deep gratification to those directly in charge of the Citizenship school and to all Woman's club members that Miss Jeanette Rankin, Montana congresswoman, be secured for two addresses. The first of these addresses was given Friday afternoon, when Miss Rankin discussed "The Minimum Wage."

Miss Rankin has gained such prominence as a national figure that much was expected of her and those who heard her address this afternoon were in no wise disappointed.

Miss Rankin said that she is now working with the National Consumers league, an organization, she said, which is engaged in creating a conscience in industry. The effort is now being made to have the minimum wage bill passed in the Mississippi Valley states and the effort has been centralized in Illinois, which is the third largest industrial state and has taken a progressive stand in so many movements.

Urges Appeal to Mr. Frisch.
The speaker said that Jacob Frisch of Springfield is on the committee on industrial affairs and the bill is now before this committee. She urged all the women present to write letters to Mr. Frisch telling him they favored the bill and asking him to do what he can in having it passed. In referring to the hearing on the bill Miss Rankin said: "At the first hearing only the proponents spoke, then came the hearing when the opponents were heard from and last week we had our last hearing, when the opponents talked and we had an hour for rebuttal. The bill is now before the committee and we expect a report by next week."

Continuing, Miss Rankin said: "The bill provides for a minimum wage commission of three, one of whom is to be a woman. This commission appoints temporary wage boards, composed of representatives of employers and employees and the public, one such board for each particular trade or industry. It is the duty of the board to work out the cost of living for a woman worker in the particular trade it represents. A budget for clothing, board and room and other necessary expenses is made out and this represents the very least upon which a woman can live and keep her self-respect and health. The board then reports to the commission, a public hearing is held and the minimum wage is agreed upon. It is then up to the industry to pay its women employees at least this minimum wage. The effect of this procedure has been to raise the wages of women."

Women Cannot Organize.
"It is hard for men to understand the necessity of minimum wage legislation for women. Men organize and thus control the wages paid them. Women cannot organize for various reasons, and the only way to safeguard them is by legislation. The minimum wage bill does not apply to women who are receiving enough to live on, but only to the women who are at the bottom of the wage scale."

"Some manufacturers tell us that wage increases are passed on to the consumer, but in most cases this is not true, for the employers who are paying a living wage really benefit by the action and it does not increase the labor cost. It is a well known fact that there is no relation between the wage rate and the labor cost. You may have a high wage rate and a low labor cost, or you may have a low wage rate and a high labor cost, so increasing the wage of these women at the bottom does not increase the labor cost for the industry."

Covers All Emergencies
"The bill has been made to cover all emergencies. It decides how long a worker is a learner and how long she shall receive learner's wages. It provides that if in an industry there are certain women employees who are so handicapped by age or lack of mentality that they cannot earn a living wage, that the employer by special contract may pay a small percentage of his workers a wage below the minimum."

"If the industry does not pay its employees a living wage, someone else must pay it. Either the woman's family pays it, and that means that another industry must bear the burden, or someone else pays it. Either private or public charity pays the cost in the end. These young girls are going to make a good appearance at any cost. When women go without enough food in order to make a good appearance, it means they are injuring their bodies, lessening their resisting powers and lowering their standard of living. This means in the end a pauperized community, so society has to pay if industry does not. It is therefore right that we should see that industry pays. The greatest drain on society is the inefficiency and depression of this great mob of women who must go on working and do not have the initiative and ambition to advance. They will in the end become charity cases."

Greatest Thought of Century
"The minimum wage bill does not pretend to take care of the unemployment problem. This is the greatest problem in the country today and cannot be solved by a mere bill like this. The greatest thought of this century is the transference of value from property to humanity, and if the entry of women into political life means anything it must mean that women must take very seriously the human factor in industry. The human factor cannot be treated in the same way as the material factor. We are seeking this legislation because it is for the benefit of humanity and not because of any selfish motives."

"If the Illinois legislature will pass this bill it will not only help the women of this state but those of other states as well, making them realize that it can be done if they work earnestly and long."

At the close of Miss Rankin's address the assembly went on record as in favor of sending a request to Mr. Frisch that he espouse the bill and lend his support in putting it thru.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Citizenship school, conducted under auspices of the Jacksonville Woman's club, hereby expresses its approval of the minimum wage bill and requests the representatives in the Illinois general assembly, Senators Wheeler, Searcy, Barber and Frisch, as members of the industrial committee, to use their best efforts to make the bill a law.

a success; to Hofmann Floral Co., for the plants for decoration; to Rabjohns and Reid and C. C. Phelps Dry Goods Co., for flags and bunting; to the Rotary club of Jacksonville for their royal entertainment of the Civic committee and guests;

Further Be It Resolved, that, we, the civic committee, recommend to the executive board of the Jacksonville Woman's club that a civic department be established; that its operation be similar to the Domestic Science Round Table, having programs along civic lines instead of domestic;

Be It Further Resolved, That the civic committee act as an investigating committee and organize a Morgan county branch of the National League of Women Voters.

Signed:
Mrs. W. D. Roberts, Mrs. J. W. Arnold, Mrs. Homer Potter, Mrs. R. G. Vasey, Mrs. H. A. Perrin, Mrs. Anderson, Committee.

The Evening Session.
There was a large attendance at the evening session, at which Miss Rankin was the speaker. The story of her own experiences in congress was told by Miss Rankin in a way which greatly interested her auditors. She then described the work in which she is now engaged in securing the passage of the minimum wage bill and other legislation for women. Reference was made to the Shepherd-Towner bill and the speaker expressed herself as in the hope that congress would in the future have a better representation of women than one to 435 as at present.

LAST DAY OF HEALTH PROMOTION WEEK

Medical Examination Day
With homes and communities thruout the state cleaned up, with baby conferences over, with thousands of unregistered births reported and with a record of splendid health programs in the schools established, the most successful observance of Health Promotion Week ever recorded in Illinois will come to a close with today's medical examination program. The State Department of Public Health, the local medical profession and local health and civic organizations are all cooperating to make the schedule a complete success.

Every person who has not recently undergone a complete medical examination is urged to do so today. An examination of this nature taken once a year will be the means of detecting organic diseases in their incipient stage at a time when remedial measures can be applied in an effective manner. Most diseases can be prevented or cured if the proper steps are taken at the right time. An annual stock taking by people generally of their health assets and liabilities can have no other effect than to add a half score or more of years to the average span of life in addition to preventing a great deal of invalidism that often results in a public charge.

Adults of thirty years or more should make a special effort to be examined today. The tendency to put on excessive weight and neglect proper physical exercise, the economic and domestic responsibilities that increase with the years and the loss of the blind strength and vigor of youth are all things that have a distinct influence over one's health. It is, therefore, of primary importance for those who approach middle age to keep a careful watch over their health by taking frequent medical examinations.

Examinations will be given by your family physician or any other responsible doctor in your community. You will be advised of your present state of health and told what to do in order to keep well.

The last day of Health Promotion Week will be the best day for those who take the medical examination.

Help yourself, your community and your state by ending the week right.

Miss Rankin is expected to return to Jacksonville at a later date to assist in the organization of a Morgan county branch of the National League of Women Voters.

JAPS ARE FAVORED IN HIGH SCHOOL DEBATES

Local Team Won Here Supporting Affirmative of Immigration Question—East St. Louis Successful in Debate There.

There is no sentiment against the Japanese in central or Southern Illinois, if the result of two high school debates last night can be taken as indicative. In Jacksonville and in East St. Louis, affirmative debaters of this question won: "Resolved that the Japanese should be admitted to the U. S., on the same basis that applies to other foreigners." The debate at the Jacksonville high school drew an audience of goodly size and the interesting question was presented.

Principal Shafer of the high school presided and the high school team included Miss Thelma Pires, Howard Nichol and Harry Furry. East St. Louis was represented in the negative side of the question by Messrs. Carter, Gillham and Fetter. The judges here were Dr. C. H. Rammeikamp, Principal Deam of the Decatur high school and Dr. Manchester of the state normal.

In East St. Louis the Jacksonville debaters had the negative side of the question and there the decision was in favor of the affirmative, as upheld by East St. Louis. The debaters who went to East St. Louis accompanied by Miss Leonard were Miss Mary Sim, Gene Darr and Lee Baldwin.

The line of argument presented at the local debate by the affirmative was of a very convincing kind. The audience inclined special approval of the rebuttal argument of Miss Pires. There is increasing interest in these debate events and Principal Shafer is anxious that one day shall come when debate enthusiasm rivals that in athletics.

AS ILLINOISANS WRANGLE

"PLUM" GOES TO SOUTH

Washington, April 22.—(Special to Chicago Tribune.)—President Harding desire to keep hands off the factional strife raging within the Republican party in Illinois is believed to have cost both Col. Edward Clifford, of Evanston, backed by Senators McCormick and McKinley, and Frank Smith, Thompson choice, the appointment as commissioner of internal revenue Thursday.

The appointment went to David H. Blair, of Winston-Salem, N. C. It aroused widespread interest because of the fact that the commissioner is charged with the enforcement of the prohibition law.

President Harding was warned some time ago by his closest advisers to move cautiously in making any appointments from Illinois, for fear of offending one faction or the other.

ROTARY CLUB HEARD MISS RANKIN SPEAK

Montana Ex-Congresswoman Told of Proposed Legislation for Benefit of Women—Laid Emphasis on Humanity Interests.

Members of the Rotary club at the luncheon Friday had as their guests a number of women associated in the work of the School of Citizenship. Miss Jeanette Rankin, former congresswoman from Montana, made the principal address and others who made timely but briefer talks were Mrs. W. S. Jones, chairman of the civic committee of the Woman's club, Mrs. O. F. Buße, president of the club, and Mrs. George C. Sikes of Chicago.

After the luncheon had been served President Riley expressed the club's pleasure in the presence of so many visitors and asked Judge Samuell to present Miss Rankin. It so happened that Judge Samuell was resident in Montana before locating in Jacksonville and knew Miss Rankin and members of her family at that time.

Miss Rankin, who is appearing before the Illinois legislature in behalf of the minimum wage bill, gave a brief picture of her experiences in congress and told of the work of the woman's joint congressional committee in its effort to foster legislation of interest to women.

The first bill Miss Rankin presented in congress was one for the protection of maternity and infancy. She told of the difficult journey this measure had until its final disposition by the committee on rules which the women had aptly named the "execution" committee. Figures were presented to show that the U. S. ranks far from the top in this matter of the care of mothers and infants. In fact, the U. S. ranks with Spain in this regard and the figures that tell the story of maternity deaths and infant mortality are indeed startling.

Then Miss Rankin made an argument to show both the justice and the good sense of the law giving women proper living wage. She declared that if this is not done, that eventually society pays the bill. The speaker said that the public could understand that women in their work are seeking to lay due emphasis upon human interests.

The group of guests included Hon. Jeanette Rankin of Montana; Mrs. George C. Sikes, Chicago; Miss Anne Hinrichsen, Springfield; Dr. Josephine Milligan, Dr. Grace Dewey, Judge Norman L. Jones, Carrollton; Mrs. O. F. Buße, president Woman's club; Miss Dorsey, state social service department, School for Blind; Mrs. W. S. Jones, chairman civic committee Woman's club; Mrs. J. W. Arnold Mrs. Byron Armstrong; Mrs. J. W. Clary, Dunmer, Mrs. J. F. Green, Mrs. S. P. Jones, Mrs. Homer Potter, Mrs. W. D. Roberts, Mrs. E. B. Spink.

ENGINEERS COMPILE RAILWAY FIGURES

Engineers who have been making valuations of local property of the Chicago and Alton Railroad, moved yesterday to Tallula where similar work will be done. Under direction of the interstate commerce commission valuation of railroad properties begun some years ago is now being completed.

More than a year ago engineers were in Jacksonville making property valuations for the Burlington and the Washburn. Some figures were also compiled for the C. and A. However, those figures related particularly to the right-of-way while the more recent compilation had to do particularly with buildings and equipment within the city limits.

The interstate commerce commission will use the railway facts in their final determination as to proper railroad rates.
